GENERAL INSTRUCTION TO CONTRACTORS (GIC)

START DATE: 21 October 2018 – The implementing partner should have the capacity to start on 21 October 2018.

Background information:

Due to improved security situation in Darfur, there is a high number of returnees in states of West Darfur and Central Darfur, however the vast majority is still suffering from limited access to basic services and livelihood opportunities. The most urgent needs are in water and sanitation, food and livelihoods. Livelihood interventions will aim to increase both the quality and quantity of food production and improve food security in West and Central Darfur.

The project will focus on delivering assistance through increasing access to water, sanitation and hygiene (WASH) services and increasing livelihood opportunities for affected populations.

Objectives:

1. To improve returnees and the local communities' knowledge and skills of safe sanitation, hygiene and garbage collection practices such as the importance of washing hands, waste management and construction of latrines using local materials.
2. To enhance agricultural and food processing activities of returnees and local communities to generate incomes and address food insecurity and malnutrition.

Target beneficiaries of planned hygiene & sanitation campaign and training and livelihoods: returnees, residents and local communities in Hashaba village, Krenik locality in West Darfur and Murraia and Magan villages, Um Dukhum locality in Central Darfur

1. Description of Works

The Implementing Partners (IPs) can apply for one or both lots –IOM also reserves the right to make amendments to the lots after the evaluation process has been completed subject to budget availability.

LOT 1: Hygiene and sanitation campaign and trainings

Under this lot, the implementing partner will be responsible for carrying out two trainings in Central Darfur, one in Murraia and one in Magan, and one training in West Darfur in Hashaba village, Krenik locality. The aim of the trainings is to support targeted communities to improve household and community sanitation and hygiene practices including transferring of knowledge for the best techniques for latrine construction using local materials. In complementarity with the trainings, the IP will be responsible for carrying out hygiene and garbage collection campaigns in each locality for two months ensuring that messages on the importance of washing hands, waste management, latrines usage, safe feeding practices are transferred.

- Conduct hygiene and sanitation training for each locality during months of November and December: Campaign and training will include theoretical session (2 days) and practical session on hand washing, waste management and proper use of latrine, etc.
- Hygiene and garbage collection campaigns in all three villages for two months

- Pre- and post- implementation survey to evaluate the impact of the hygiene campaigns; (IOM will provide the survey and the IP will be responsible to submit copies of the surveys carried out once at the beginning at the project and once at the end of the project).
- Monitoring and evaluation

LOT 2: Agricultural and food processing activities

Agricultural supports will include 1) provision of vegetable seeds and farming tools with training and 2) training for food processing to address food insecurity and malnutrition while type and volume of agricultural and food processing activities may be adjusted according to the results of a joint field assessment (see below). The selected organization will be requested to conduct the joint field assessment with IOM field staff.

1. Joint field assessment between the selected organization and IOM:

Note: IOM will cover a total cost for the joint field assessment, while the selected organization will be requested to nominate one or two persons for supporting in organizing and implementing the joint assessment.

- i. The assessment includes a feasibility and market assessment to identify the most suitable livelihood interventions to address food insecurity in selected areas and identify beneficiaries based on agreed upon selection criteria.
- ii. Conduct two community workshops (for each locality) to agree upon the needs and priorities within the targeted communities

2. Provision of seeds (e.g. water, tomato, okra and cucumber, sorghum, millet, sesame, watermelon, okra, tomatoes and groundnuts. etc.) for a total 240 HHS: 80 HHs for each village (Hashaba, Murraia and Magan): Seeds could include both winter and summer cropping. 10-15 g for each HH.

3. Provision of farming tools (e.g. donky plough, hoe, Axes, etc.) for a total 240 HHS: 80 HHs for each village (Hashaba, Murraia and Magan):

4. Agricultural training for 240 HHs who received seeds/farming tools: Both theoretical and practical training will be delivered to improve knowledge and skills on cropping technique (especially for winter season) and appropriate maintenance/recycle and/ or storage methods of distributed seeds and farming tools.

5. Provision of materials on food processing and conservation and training in food processing and conservation based on agricultural production:

- Provision of material and training in food processing for a total 120 women who will be selected from the HHs who received the above mentioned agricultural extension supports. Additional 90 women (30 women from each village) will further be selected to receive this intervention. Pregnant women, lactating women, mothers who having children under 5 will be prioritized for a selection.
- Type of distributed materials will be determined according to the existing food processing practices (fruits, vegetable, meat and milk based foods) or interests exploring different types of food processing business among beneficiaries as well as available budget.
- Training themes may include but not limit to: food processing, packaging and storage technique; preservation of raw materials to consumer foods, practicing hygiene and safety aspects in food preparation; knowledge of nutrition and food security aspects in food processing, etc.

6. Monitoring and evaluation: Reporting on success stories, monitoring, and for carrying out focus group or individual interviews with the targeted beneficiaries before and after the implementation of the activity to evaluate the impact of the project.

- i. IMPORTANT: The implementing partner will be responsible for conducting a Post Distribution Monitoring report to determine and evaluate if IGAs have been successful in all three locations.

All information submitted by the Bidder will be considered to be a truthful representation of the work capacity of the Bidder. This information includes staff, equipment, previous work experience, and the capacity to finish the proposed work at the submitted price and time, and under the technical specifications outlined in this document and its attachments. Please note that IOM will keep a record of the implementing partner's performance. Failure to complete this project in accordance with the bid may negatively impact future tenders.

2. Corrupt, Fraudulent and Practices

IOM requires that all IOM Staff, contractors, manufacturers, suppliers or distributors, observe the highest stand of ethics during the procurement and execution of all contracts. IOM shall reject any proposal put forward by contractors, or where applicable terminate their contract, if it is determined that they have engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices. In pursuance of this policy, IOM defines for purposes of this paragraph the terms set forth below as follows:

- Corrupt practice means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence the action of the Procuring/Contracting Entity in the procurement process or in contract execution;
- Fraudulent practice is any act or omission, including a misrepresentation, that knowingly or recklessly misleads, or attempts to mislead, the Procuring/Contracting Entity in the procurement process or the execution of a contract, to obtain a financial gain or other benefit to avoid an obligation;
- Collusive practice is an undisclosed arrangement between two or more contractors designed to artificially alter the results of the tender procedure to obtain a financial gain or other benefit;
- Coercive practice is impairing or harming, or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any participant in the tender process to influence improperly its activities in a procurement process, or affect the execution of a contract

3. Conflict of Interest

- Have access to proposed areas of implementation areas, having previously implemented projects focused on returnees and is considered an advantage.

5. Cost of Quotation Preparation

The IP shall bear all costs associated with the preparation and submission of his Quotation/proposal (Annex A) and IOM will not in any case be responsible and liable for the cost incurred.

6. Errors, omissions, inaccuracies, variations and clarification in the Quotation Documents

The documents and forms requested for the purpose of soliciting Quotations shall form part of the Contract; hence care should be taken in completing these documents.

Contractors shall not be entitled to base any claims on errors, omissions, or inaccuracies made in the Quotation Documents. Contractors requiring any clarifications on the content of this document may notify the IOM in writing at the following address.

Khartoum Office: Gerief West {Manshiya} House No 1/38, Block G Khartoum, Sudan P.O. Box 8322, Khartoum*

Or

IOM Sub-office of El Geneina: Al Jamarik Area – North to El Geneina University & East to Al Jamarik Market, El-Geneina, West Darfur-Sudan*

IOM will respond to any request for clarification received on or before 10st of October 16:00. Copies of the response including description of the clarification will be given to all Contractors who received this General Instruction, without identifying the source of the inquiry.

7. Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure

All information given in writing to or verbally shared with the Contractor in connection with this General Instruction is to be treated as strictly confidential. The Contractor shall not share or invoke such information to any third party without the prior written approval of IOM. This obligation shall continue after the procurement process has been completed whether or not the Contractor is successful.

8. IOM's Right to Accept any Quotation and to Reject any and all Quotations

IOM reserves the right to accept or reject any Quotation, and to cancel the procurement process and reject all quotations submitted, at any time prior to award of contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected Contractor or Contractors or any obligation to inform the affected Contractor or Contractors of the ground for the IOM's action.

9. Requirements

9.1 Quotation Documents

- 8.1 The Implementing Partner warrants that:

- (a) It is an organization financially sound and duly licensed, with adequate human resources, equipment, competence, expertise and skills necessary to implement fully and satisfactorily, within the stipulated completion period, the Project in accordance with this Agreement;
- (b) It shall comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations when performing its obligations under this Agreement;
- (c) In all circumstances it shall act in the best interests of IOM;
- (d) No official of IOM or any third party has received from, will be offered by, or will receive from the Implementing Partner any direct or indirect benefit arising from the Agreement or award thereof;
- (e) It has not misrepresented or concealed any material facts in the procurement of this Agreement;
- (f) The Implementing Partner, its staff or shareholders have not previously been declared by IOM ineligible to be awarded agreements by IOM;
- (g) It has or shall take out relevant insurance coverage for the period the Project is implemented under this Agreement;
- (h) It shall abide by the highest ethical standards in the performance of this Agreement, which includes not engaging in any discriminatory or exploitative practices or practices inconsistent with the rights set forth in the Convention on the Rights of the Child;
- (i) The Price specified in Article 6.1 of this Agreement shall constitute the sole remuneration in connection with this Agreement. The Implementing Partner shall not accept for its own benefit any trade commission, discount or similar payment in connection with activities pursuant to this Agreement or the discharge of its obligations thereunder. The Implementing Partner shall ensure that any subcontractors, as well as the personnel and agents of either of them, similarly, shall not receive any such additional remuneration.

- 8.2 The Implementing Partner further warrants that it shall:

- a) Take all appropriate measures to prohibit and prevent actual, attempted and threatened sexual exploitation and abuse (SEA) by its employees or any other persons engaged and controlled by it to perform activities under this Agreement ("other personnel"). For the purpose of this Agreement, SEA shall include:

1. Exchanging any money, goods, services, preferential treatment, job opportunities or other advantages for sexual favours or activities, including humiliating or degrading treatment of a sexual nature; abusing a position of vulnerability, differential power or trust for sexual purposes, and physical intrusion of a sexual nature whether by force or under unequal or coercive conditions.
 2. Engaging in sexual activity with a person under the age of 18 ("child"), except if the child is legally married to the concerned employee or other personnel and is over the age of majority or consent both in the child's country of citizenship and in the country of citizenship of the concerned employee or other personnel.
- b) Strongly discourage its employees or other personnel having sexual relationships with IOM beneficiaries.
 - c) Report timely to IOM any allegations or suspicions of SEA, and investigate and take appropriate corrective measures, including imposing disciplinary measures on the person who has committed SEA.
 - d) Ensure that the SEA provisions are included in all subcontracts.
 - e) Adhere to above commitments at all times. Failure to comply with (a)-(d) shall constitute grounds for immediate termination of this Agreement.

8.3 The above warranties shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

9. Assignment/Subcontracting

- 9.1 The Implementing Partner shall not assign or subcontract the activities under this Agreement in part or all, unless agreed upon in writing in advance by IOM. Any subcontract entered into by the Partner without approval in writing by IOM may be cause for termination of the Agreement.
- 9.2 In certain exceptional circumstances by prior written approval of IOM, specific jobs and portions of the activities may be assigned to a subcontractor. Notwithstanding the said written approval, the Implementing Partner shall not be relieved of any liability or obligation under this Agreement nor shall it create any contractual relation between the subcontractor and IOM. The Implementing Partner remains bound and liable under this Agreement and it shall be directly responsible to the IOM for any faulty performance under the subcontract. The subcontractor shall have no cause of action against IOM for any breach of the subcontract.

10. Delays/Non-Performance

- 10.1 If, for any reason, the Implementing Partner does not carry out or is not able to carry out its obligations under this Agreement and/or according to the Project Document (Annex A), it must give notice and full particulars in writing to IOM as soon as possible. On receipt of such notice, IOM shall take such action as in its sole discretion is considered to be appropriate or necessary in the circumstances.

10.2 Neither Party will be liable for any delay in performing or failure to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement if such delay or failure is caused by force majeure, such as civil disorder, military action, natural disaster and other circumstances which are beyond the control of the Party in question. In such event, the Party will give immediate notice in writing to the other Party of the existence of such cause or event and of the likelihood of delay.

11. Independent Contractor

The Implementing Partner shall perform all activities under this Agreement as an independent contractor and not as an employee, partner, or agent of IOM.

12. Confidentiality

All information including personal information of the beneficiaries which comes into the Implementing Partner's possession or knowledge in connection with this Agreement or the Project is to be treated as strictly confidential. The Implementing Partner shall not communicate such information to any third party without the prior written approval of IOM. The Implementing Partner shall comply with IOM Data Protection Principles in the event that it collects, receives, uses, transfers or stores any personal data in the performance of this Agreement. This obligation shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

13. Intellectual Property (*6)

All intellectual property and other proprietary rights including, but not limited to, patents, copyrights, trademarks and ownership of data resulting from the Project shall be vested in IOM, including, without any limitation, the rights to use, reproduce, adapt, publish and distribute any item or part thereof.

14. Notices

Any notice given pursuant to this Agreement will be sufficiently given if it is in writing and received by the other Party at the following address:

International Organization for Migration (IOM)

Attn: [Name of IOM contact person]

Email: [IOM's email address]

15. Dispute resolution

15.1. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in relation to this Agreement, or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof, shall be settled amicably by negotiation between the Parties.

15.2. In the event that the dispute, controversy or claim has not been resolved by negotiation within 3 (three) months of receipt of the notice from one party of the existence of such dispute, controversy or claim, either Party may request that the dispute, controversy or claim is resolved by conciliation by one conciliator in accordance with the UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules of 1980. Article 16 of the UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules does not apply.

15.3. In the event that such conciliation is unsuccessful, either Party may submit the dispute, controversy or claim to arbitration no later than 3 (three) months following the date of termination of conciliation proceedings as per Article 15 of the UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules. The arbitration will be carried out in accordance with the 2010 UNCITRAL arbitration rules as adopted in 2013. The number of arbitrators shall be one and the language of arbitral proceedings shall be English, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing. The arbitral tribunal shall have no authority to award punitive damages. The arbitral award will be final and binding.

15.4. The present Agreement as well as the arbitration agreement above shall be governed by internationally accepted general principles of law and by the terms of the present Agreement, to the exclusion of any single national system of law that would defer the Agreement to the laws of any given jurisdiction. Internationally accepted general principles of law shall be deemed to include the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts. Dispute resolution shall be pursued confidentially by both Parties. This Article survives the expiration or termination of the present Agreement. (*7)

16. Use of IOM Name (*8)

The official logo and name of IOM may only be used by the Implementing Partner in connection with the Project and with the prior written approval of IOM. The Implementing Partner must acknowledge the contribution of IOM to the Project in any advertising or publicity connected with the Project, which must be approved by IOM in writing in advance.

17. Status of IOM

Nothing in this Agreement affects the privileges and immunities enjoyed by IOM as an intergovernmental organization. (*9)

18. Indemnity

18.1 The Implementing Partner shall at all times defend, indemnify and hold harmless IOM, its officers, employees and agents from and against all loss, costs, damages and expenses (including legal fees and costs), claims, suits and liabilities to the extent arising out of or resulting from the activities under this Agreement. IOM shall promptly notify the Implementing Partner of any written claim, loss, or demand for which the Implementing Partner is responsible under this clause.

18.2 This indemnity shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

19. Waiver

Failure by either Party to insist in any one or more instances on a strict performance of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver or relinquishment of the right to enforce the provisions of this Agreement in future instances, but this right shall continue and remain in full force and effect.

20. Termination

20.1 This Agreement may be terminated by [X (number in words) month's] written notice to the other Party. However, where the Implementing Partner is in breach of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, IOM may terminate the Agreement with immediate effect.

20.2 In the event of termination, IOM will only pay costs expended or legally committed in accordance with this Agreement up to the date of receipt of notice of termination, unless otherwise agreed. (*10) Other amounts paid in advance will be returned to IOM within 7 (seven) days from the date of termination.

20.3 Upon any such termination, the Implementing Partner shall waive any claims for damages including loss of anticipated profits on account thereof.

21. Severability

If any part of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, that part will be severed from this Agreement and the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force.

22. Entirety

This Agreement embodies the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, if any, relating to the subject matter of this Agreement.

23. Final clauses

24.1 This Agreement will enter into force upon signature by both Parties. It will remain in force until completion of all obligations of the Parties under this Agreement unless terminated earlier in accordance with Article 20.

24.2 Amendments may be made by mutual agreement in writing between the Parties.
